

Student Law Clerks - Fall 2022

Cohen, Weiss and Simon LLP is looking for student Law Clerks to join our team in Fall 2022. Applicants should be current law school students with strong research and writing skills. Coursework in labor, employment and/or ERISA/employee benefits law is preferred. Labor union, employee benefit plan, journal and/or moot court experience is a plus. Compensation is $30/hour.

Interested candidates should submit applications using the subject line "Fall 2022 Clerkship" to the Law Clerk Committee, at clerks@cwsny.com, through June 3, 2022. Please include a cover letter explaining what has drawn you to work for the labor movement and workers/plan participants, resume, and legal writing sample. This position is expected to be at least partially in-person in our Manhattan office.

Applicants of all backgrounds are welcome and women, minorities, BIPOC individuals, people with disabilities, veterans and LGBTQIA+ candidates are strongly encouraged to apply.
